INTRODUCTION

No relationship is easy. They are constantly a work in progress. There is no answer or magic solution to a problem. You must experience several real situations over a period of time to understand what makes an individual compelled to certain sexual behavior.

Because of my life's experiences and my years running the sex business, I know more about the dynamics of male and female behavior and the complexities of relationships than someone who has spent years in a classroom, reading self-help books, or going to a therapist. This book does not follow the conservative, traditional values of dating. This book details what you need to know for real life, not the fantasy "happily ever after" relationships. My advice may not follow society's standards, but it is right.

HERSTORY

HERSTORY LESSON

They say a woman's pubic hair is stronger than the transatlantic cable.
Men lose all rational thinking and risk everything for a woman.

The highest religious figures betrayed their faith & fellowship, wars have been fought, empires crumbled, royalty abdicated, kings dethroned, governments & politicians destroyed, families ripped apart, and closest friends turned enemies. Men kill, go insane, and commit suicide over women.

From the beginning of time, man has continually succumbed to the woman. In the biblical story of Adam and Eve, Adam knew the fruit Eve held was forbidden by God, yet he bit into it. Thus the fall of man occurred.

The Trojan War was triggered by Helen. In the ancient story of Troy, Helen's adultery and love affair with Paris caused the infamous War.

vincent van gogh

The great artist Vincent Van Gogh is remembered to have gone insane and cut off his own ear.

Others say the artist fell in love with a woman to the point of obsession. He wanted to win her complete attention. To prove his devotion, he cut off his ear and delivered it to her, at the brothel where she worked.

Men who were born to be king have chosen a woman instead of the monarchy.

Edward VIII abdicated the throne to spend his life with Wallis Simpson, a twice divorced American.

recently, even powerful, seemingly untouchable celebrities have been torn apart over women.

pop icon kurt cobain was rumored to be tortured by his emotions towards courtney love and died from a self-inflicted gun shot. the most famous band of all time supposedly broke up over a member's priority. yoko ono

the distraction of a woman is too powerful for a man to ignore so they want to bundle women up, entirely out of sight.

even today
some countries force women to be covered completely except for the eyes, so that men are able to function.

SELF-ESTEEM & CONFIDENCE
any time is the right time

Every woman is the most beautiful woman on earth

It is assumed that the woman must wait, motionless, until she is wooed. That is how the spider waits for the fly.

-George Bernard Shaw

MEN WANT

Men want a girl that can conduct herself with style and class. Behind closed doors, they want her to turn into a porno star. Men think about sex 97% of the time. If you want to get to a guy, go all out in the bedroom. Do all the things you have heard of, thought of, and frowned upon. The next day your man will think about the events of the previous evening over and over again...

if you listen to what everybody says about you, then you become their prisoner.

THERE ARE PLENTY OF MEN OUT THERE AND THEY ALL WANT THE SAME THING

REJECTION isn't your name, so don't take it personally. The shoe doesn't always fit, but if his were made for walkin', chances are, you had nothing to do with it. He could be healing from a bad relationship, or some other condition that doesn't concern you, either!

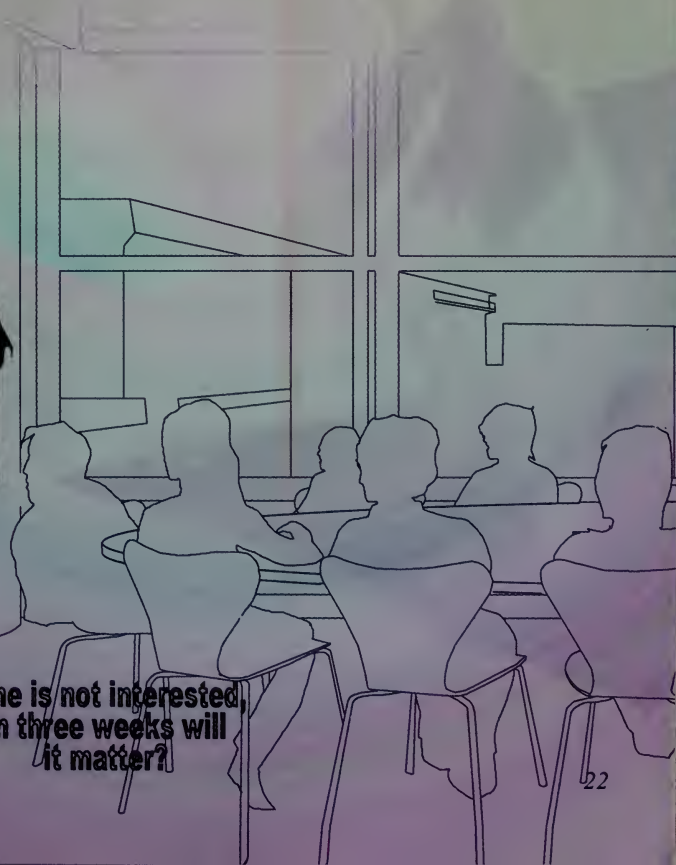

PS: The hunk in biker boots has a seat open with your name written all over it... GO!

It does not matter what your initial intentions are; when you see someone who interests you, approach him. It does not matter where you are or what time it is. When you first speak to him, always project confidence and a smooth attitude with a smile. If it is a co-worker, go after him. If it is 2AM at a nightclub or party, go after him. If it is someone in the car next to you, someone at a fancy party or in an elevator, do not hold back. If you don't do something about your feelings, nothing will ever happen.

Sex on the first date

Many girls struggle with having sex right away.
There is nothing to gain by holding out.

The guy is not going to desire you more.
He is not going to respect you more

THIS IS NOT THE 1800's when ladies had to be a certain proper way.

Do not have any reservations when you want to have sex.

He will be more turned on if you are uninhibited and confident

Be going with your impulses, you also get rid of the uncomfortable emotions that build up to intimacy.

If you want to have sex,
do it.

If you don't want to have sex, then don't.

But, if you want to and are holding back because you think it is the correct thing to do, the guy will find someone else who will have sex with him.

BE PREPARED FOR A SLEEP OVER

YOUR PLACE

Make sure your home is clean in case you decide to bring a guy back to your place. Do not have piles of dirty dishes, laundry, sex toys, financial statements, medications, or your diary laying out in the open.

HIS PLACE

Go to your local drugstore and purchase a travel size toothbrush, perfume, and tampons to carry in your purse.

Always have a plan
the morning after sex.

Don't linger around waiting for him to ask you out to Breakfast.

Get up and be on your way with a smile.

Do not worry about corny pick up line

The cheesy words don't matter. It is all in the way you deliver them. If your line is corny, deliver it with hum must know

ALWAYS know

1 Joke

No matter how stupid, remember one joke.
This sounds corny, but it can be so important. Your date can slip & fall in front of a group of people or knock something over. Go right into the joke.

When fighting & want to stop...
ease in with the joke.

Use the joke in those uncomfortable silences.
Use the joke in any awkward social situation:
after you tell them they have food in their teeth,
if someone passes gas,
if someone unexpected shows up.
After sex.

DO NOT GET DRUNK ON A DATE.

If you are nervous before you go out on a date DO NOT START DRINKING. Try to exercise or think about something that gives you confidence. When you are out, if you order a cocktail, drink it in a ladylike manner. DO NOT start pounding back cocktail after cocktail. You will regret it later.

Before You go on a date, make sure you feel your best;

Beautiful and Comfortable

Do not overdo it with jewelry, makeup and flamboyant colors

He thought you were cute enough to go out on a date with when he met you, so go out on the date as the same girl. Do not try to wow him with elaborate take-your-breath-away accessories.

Be the girl he met when he asked you out.

Do not wear an outfit that does not compliment your body simply because it is in fashion.

Wear sexy shoes

but do not wear anything so uncomfortable that you have difficulty walking in them.

Don't wear more makeup than you would normally wear. Wear your hair simply. You only need to wash and brush it. You do not need a complicated updo for a simple date.

When he picks you up, walk out the door feeling like a million bucks, but not looking like you are about to walk down the red carpet at a movie premiere.

Never use too many swear words;
A sailor mouth is not attractive.

Never overeat at dinner or order something grossly fattening, Never undereat either.

DO NOT INTIMIDATE YOUR DATE OR MAKE HIM FEEL INADEQUATE BY COMPARING HIM TO YOUR PAST BOYFRIENDS.

Do not say,

"Well, my last boyfriend took me here..."

or,

"My last boyfriend bought me this..."

This broadcasts superficiality and implies that you have a hidden agenda. This will also immediately scare him away because he will feel he cannot compare to your past man.

HE WAS ABOUT

Once you are comfortable with a man and he realizes your needs, he should be helping you with your utility bills, car payments, or credit card bills. If he is capable of helping you and he doesn't try to ease your worries, you should dump him.

"Look at that girl's shirt! It's so cheap, she must have got it at Save-Mart!"

WARNING SIGNS

We all have a past & some baggage.
However, certain baggage will always get in the way.

If a man has a wife, ex-wife, children, or an over-bearing family; a serious relationship is NOT possible. All the baggage will always put you second.
The only realistic involvements are one night stand or fling. As a player, you do not want to hear about all his

Do not try to get into a relationship

No matter how passionate you feel or how hard you try, the baggage will be his priority & come before

SOULMATE, IT IS BEST TO MOVE TO A PLACE THAT IS NEW FOR BOTH OF YOU.

IF YOU STAY IN EITHER PERSON'S CURRENT PLACE, THE OTHER PERSON WILL SUBCONSCIOUSLY THINK ABOUT THE PAST LOVERS WHO WERE THERE.

ALSO, THERE IS ALWAYS
THE CHANCE OF AN UNINVITED AND UNEXPECTED "VISITOR" STOPPING BY.

When caught in the dirt, never lie about it or blame the other person. Take responsibility for deceiving someone you love. This is difficult, but handle the situation with honesty. It shows class and respect for your lover—even if they doubt your every word.

If you are truly sorry and want to work things out, admit everything no matter how embarrassing or painful. Give him the best gift on earth to give. SHOW that you are serious and sincere. Do all you can to ease his pain, show him that he is special. If you truly don't want to lose him, agree to all conditions he may have at the moment and honor them without question.

If his pain shows no forgiveness, do not become upset or angry. Your man is emotionally wounded and fearful. Give him as much time as needed to heal, leaving him alone.

If you reconcile and find later that this type of behavior, tell him so. This will no doubt create conflict. No matter how ugly the fighting gets, do not become mean or insulting. Do what you can to help him adjust comfortably to life without you.

Treat him with an abundance of love and respect and for his sake, SAY GOODBYE.

DEALING WITH A BREAK-UP

break-ups are ugly.

Try to minimize this by doing certain things.

When you can feel the relationship is coming up to an end, do not humiliate the other person;

do not date their friends, do not call or hang out with their friends, do not bring a new date to places where you will run into your ex, do not bad-mouth the person, do not tell things you were told in confidence while dating.

No matter how ugly the person's reaction, do not respond. Do not sink to that level.

There was a time when you were happy with that person. Always keep that in mind. Give the person what you can to help ease the break-up.

Realize that once a relationship ends
THE ONLY THING THAT CAN HEAL THE PAIN IS

TIME — or — ANOTHER DICK

Do not think you are the exception to the rule and that this does not apply to you.

LET THE TIME PASS, OR REBOUND

If you let time pass, do not dwell on the relationship.

HE WAS NOT THE BEST OR THE ONLY ONE.

If you rebound, treat your reboundee with respect. Be up front about where you are coming from. Tell him you just got out of a relationship, but DO NOT talk about your past relationship in any sort of detail.

AFTER A BREAK-UP, MOST OF US ARE emotionally vulnerable. It is easy to start getting depressed and have low self-esteem. No matter what the circumstances were, you have to pull yourself together and move forward.

THE ONLY WAY TO STOP DEPRESSION is to change something in your Life.

change your Routine OR the situation will get worse.

CHANGE ANYTHING in Your everyday schedule!

DO NOT CALL HIM
DO NOT DRIVE BY HIS HOUSE
DO NOT GO BY HIS WORK
IF THERE IS A NEW GIRL,
DO NOT PUT HER DOWN
DO NOT THINK OF AN EXCUSE TO SEE EACH OTHER
DO NOT CALL HIS FAMILY OR FRIENDS
DO NOT TRY TO RETRIEVE ITEMS
CUT IT OFF COMPLETELY AND MOVE ON

Do anything to keep him off your mind. Stay away from any places you might run into each other or places you would go together.

Do not think about the good times or the terrible times.

Try to block the time you shared together out of your mind until you have no emotions towards the situation.

A PLAYER

... knows who she is and isn't concerned with other's opinions. She's a rebel without the cause or malicious intent.
Society's rules don't concern her, yet she is never mean or out to hurt anyone. She draws both men and women into her smooth, confident aura with class and style.

You will not find her in the arms of another girl's man; she's not out to make enemies or win a race—and doesn't need to. She knows how to make everyone comfortable and familiar as she utters your name with a sly, "hello."

Committed to no one, envied by everyone.

DATING DIFFERENT MEN does not make you a slut, a whore or a tramp. The player would never think of herself in this way, as she knows the hypocrisy of society's labels. Knowing several men is her way of selecting the finest fruit from the basket, discarding the rotten at it's core. Tradition has always preached this; "pick, pick, and pick some more—until you savor the taste of your fulfillment."

VARIETY is the key to all who are satisfied and aware.

PLAYER

LIFE AS A PLAYER will take you to many men who have always wanted you and felt they could never live the reality.

You immediately put his mind and soul at ease by gently touching his hand, looking him in the eyes.

Your subtle grace and charm make him feel like a million, without saying a word. When you do, you ask him about his thoughts on a problem he's having, listening at attention, and inquiring about the details both of you share over a drink alone somewhere. Somehow, during the evening, you managed to remember his favorite sports team and surprised him with tickets to the upcoming game.

PLAYER

EVERY MAN wants to be with a player, even for a night. Somehow, she knows something other women do not. At the game she screams like one of the guys, at the track she's got the inside on the inside as it races through the finish line. He can't take his eyes off you, but you let him know that you must go for now, but had a time like no other. He'll call and call, your cell phone playing the melody of pursuit as you let your voicemail take the call. After all, you are out with another and wouldn't dream of diverting your attention away for a second!

PLAYER'S HANDBOOK

In the early 1990's HEIDI FLEISS held and created some of Hollywood's most coveted and (envied) sexual secrets. Her knowledge and understanding of the male and female psyche was gained by becoming the most well-know Madam of all time. Her rise and fall captivated the world and sent shivers down the spine of all who participated and pardoned themselves within her empire. After the smoke had cleared the both state and federal jury trials, Heidi served three years in Federal prison for tax evasion. HEIDI, now lives back in her hometown Hollywood, California where she owns and operates the boutique, HOLLYWOOD MADAM. Recently Paramount Pictures has purchased the rights to her incredible life story for an upcoming feature film. THE PLAYER'S HANDBOOK is Heidi's second book published by her own ONE HOUR ENTERTAINMENT, which also released her memoir, PANDERING as well as THE BEVERLY HILLS TUTOR by Libby Keatinge. Look for more upcoming releases from ONE HOUR ENTERTAINMENT in 2006.
